Come see this historic, yet updated, Benton Park charmer. Upon entering, you will immediately notice the exposed brick, extra tall ceilings, pocket doors and loads of natural light. The stylish living room features a decorative fireplace and opens to a large dining room with more than enough space to host the holidays. The spacious kitchen has been updated with beautiful custom cabinetry and backsplash, granite countertops, under-cabinetry lighting, and a center island. Beyond the kitchen, you will find another generous family room, powder room and main-floor laundry!

The second floor offers a sizable master suite with his and hers closets and an extra-large master bathroom featuring a double-sink vanity, jetted tub and separate standing shower. Two additional bedrooms with tall, bright windows share another updated full bathroom. The backyard features a nice privacy fence and two separate patios for optimum entertaining, and the third floor has potential to become whatever your heart desires!
